

RESPONDING TO THE BUILT ENVIRONMENT:

Feeling Map

INSTRUCTIONS

Select a location or structure in your school that you visit or interact with regularly. Think about how you “respond” to it. You may not realize that you have certain reactions to it. Take a few minutes to think about what happens to you in the moment when you are there. Fill out the sections below to describe these reactions. You do not have to complete sections that don’t match your specific reactions.
